— OF —

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE,

BROOKLYN.

— FOR THE —

Academic Year, 1893 and 1894.

The Collegiate course covers those branches usually taught in Literary Colleges of the first rank; the commercial course is thorough and practical, particular attention being given to Arithmetic, Letter-writing, Book-keeping and Commerical Law.

Students who have completed the Collegiate course, in a manner satisfactory to the Factulty, will receive the degree of BACHELOR OF ARTS; and two years afterwards the degree of MASTER OF ARTS will be conferred on such of their number as shall have devoted themselves in the meantime to literary or scientific studies.

Commerical Diplomas are awarded to students of the Commercial Department on the satisfactory the completion of their course.

REGULATIONS.

The Academic Year opens at the beginning of September, and closes on the 24th of June.

General examinations are held in the months of January and June.

Quarterly reports are sent to the parents or guardians.

There are no classes taught on Thursdays, or on days of religious or National observance; there is a vacation of one week at Christmas and Easter.

The classes open at 9 o'clock and close at 3:00 P. M.; at 10:30 there is a short recess, and at 12: M. there is a recess of twenty-five minutes.

The time spent in College being occupied principally in lectures and recitations, students are required to prepare their lessons at home.

Punctual attendance is required. In case of absence from College, or very late attendance, the parent or guardian of the student is required to state the cause of such absence or lateness by a note. A note is also required when a student desires to leave before the end of the classes; the case of sickness excepted.

Students are received at any time, and charged from date of entrance only.

No deduction is made for absence, unless caused by protracted illness.

Gentlemanly deportment is expected and required from all.

ACADEMIC DEPARTMENT.

This Department is open to pupils not yet qualified to enter the Freshman class. None are received, however, who cannot read fairly.

The course of studies extending over four years embraces the following branches.

Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, Orthography, Geography, English Grammar, English Composition, Elocution, History of the United States, Book-Keeping, the Elements of Latin, Greek, French and German.

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT.

The studies pursued in this Department are the same as those of the First and Second Academic Classes, with this exception: Book-Keeping and Commercial Law are substituted for Latin and Greek.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

The Trustees offer, annually, two Prize Scholarships (tenable for three years), to pupils from the Parochial Schools of Brooklyn.

Candidates for these Scholarships must be recommended by the Rev. Pastor of the Parish in which they respectively reside, and present themselves for examination before the opening of the Scholastic Year. Their examination is on the following branches: Orthography, Arithmetic, English Grammar, English Composition, History of the United States and Modern Geography. The Scholarships are awarded to the two boys who make the best written examinations on these subjects, provided they reach a grade of at least 75 out of a possible 100.

 Examinations for the above Scholarships will be held this year on Saturday, September 8th, at 10 A. M.
